

The Congregation B'nai Israel Men's Club

invites you to our monthly Brunch

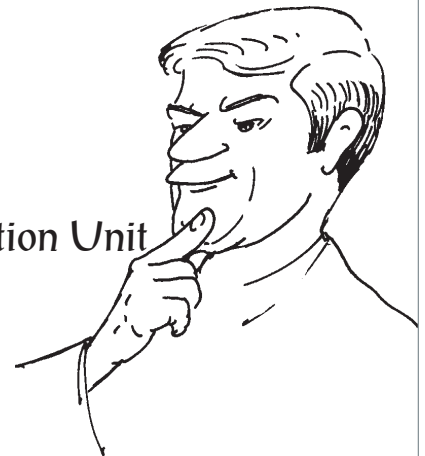

Sunday, September 11, 2011

10 am

our special guest speaker

Steve Sink

Senior Crime Specialist, APD Crime Prevention Unit

How to Be Safe

Steve Sink is the manager of the Albuquerque Police Department's Crime Prevention Unit. He has a BA and MA in Education and has been with the department for fourteen years.

You will learn . . .

- How to be a good witness
- To recognize suspicious behavior/activity and how to respond
- To be aware of your surroundings and trust your instincts
- Targets and opportunities and how they relate to crime
 - Auto theft and burglary prevention/awareness
 - ID theft/scam prevention/awareness
 - Residential safety and security
- How to target harden the home/apartment, door-to-door solicitation, etc

Cost: $9 per person

We appreciate your reservation being made by Thursday, September 8, 2011.

You can make your reservation by calling Rick Hammer at 821-0316 or send an email to foxboat@aol.com.

We look forward to seeing you there!

